Your favorite Carson City photo could become part of an historic mural and help you win cash or prizes

Carson City, NV—Your favorite Carson memory could become a part of an historic mural being painted at the Carson Nugget by renown Gardnerville artist, Beverly Caputo.

The mural already features special Carson City landmarks, people and events and there is room for 15 additions. So, the Carson Nugget is looking for photographs that depict memorable Carson moments – dating anytime from pre-1900 to present day – to add to the mural which is located outside the banquet rooms and seen by thousands of people each year.

In addition for the honor of being featured as part of the mural, the top three submissions, as chosen by our panel, will win:

1st $500

2nd iPad

3rd Kindle Fire

To participate submit your Carson City photograph showing something special and distinctly Carson City – its history, traditions, community, celebrities, buildings, trends, places, or people. There is a special category for photos featuring the Carson Nugget and we are hoping to discover some gems from our 60-year history in Carson City.
