OSCAR, EMMY, GOLDEN GLOBE WINNER, LIVING LEGEND MICKEY ROONEY
AND JAN ROONEY PERFORM LIVE AT CARSON NUGGET NOV. 27
Star Studded Couple Bring Acclaimed Off Broadway Musical: Let's Put on a Show

CARSON CITY, NEV. (November 29, 2010) – He's a living, breathing entertainment legend with more than 350 film credits to his name and four stars along the Hollywood Walk of Fame. The one and only Mickey Rooney is on his way with his wife and stage partner, Jan Rooney, to perform Let's Put on a Show Saturday, November 27 in the Carson Nugget Ballroom. The show begins at 8 p.m.; doors open at 7 p.m. Tickets are available starting at $25 at www.ccnugget.com.

An American treasure, Mickey Rooney is a living legend whose career as a child prodigy, actor, musician, composer and entertainer has film, television, and stage appearances that now span ten decades. He has received multiple honors including the Academy Award, Golden Globe, Emmy Award and most proudly the Bronze Star for service in World War II. Beloved for his work as the Andy Hardy character and movie partner to Judy Garland, Rooney's career endures as the longest of any living actor.

The evening will feature tales from 87 consecutive years in show business peppered with gems from the golden years of MGM, among them "Manhattan" and "How About You," from his storied teaming with Judy Garland. The show builds on the long lasting, relationship with the true love of his life, his talented wife of over 32 years, Jan. Jan displays her soaring vocal skills in a variety of musical styles that range from a Patsy Cline tribute to their duets that harken back to the Hollywood of yesterday. The show also features an on stage trio.

Jan Rooney has appeared in numerous films, television shows, cartoon voice-overs, and commercials. Jan's extraordinary live performances have wowed audiences in venues throughout the U.S., Europe, Australia and New Zealand, on a variety of stages, including Las Vegas, performing arts theatres, country western venues, cruise ships, fairs and the world famous Hollywood Bowl. She is proud to have worked with legendary performers such as Chet Atkins, Joel Grey, Leslie Caron, The Smothers Brothers, Phyllis Diller and Placido Domingo, among others.

Rooney now begins his 10th decade entertaining audiences' world-wide. To celebrate his 90th birthday, Mickey and Jan did a 13 city pan-Canadian tour of the show and two sold out performances at Feinstein's at the Loews Regency in New York. His entire achievements pale, in comparison to what Mickey considers his greatest life achievement-that is his 25-year marriage to Jan. In 1984 Mickey was honored with his fourth star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. He proudly shares that star with Jan for their achievement in live entertainment. They remain deeply in love and currently reside in Ventura, Calif., where they enjoy the pleasure and quiet of the country with other loves of their lives, their children and grandchildren.
