CARSON NUGGET TRADITION MARKS 56TH YEAR OF FREE THANKSGIVING DINNER

CARSON CITY, NEV. (November 11, 2010) – Continuing its long steeped tradition of helping the local community, Carson Nugget prepares to serve its 56th year of a free Thanksgiving meal on November 25 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the second floor Ballroom. The culinary team will be serving up a buffet of mouth-watering, slow-roasted turkey, country mashed potatoes with apple/bourbon gravy, fresh cranberry sauce, green beans almondine and, of course pumpkin and apple pie to top it all off.

“This is a tradition that goes all the way back to the first owner of the Nugget, Dick Graves,” said Star Anderson, general manager of the Carson Nugget. “We’re proud to still uphold this 56-year tradition that provides a holiday meal for those in need.”

The Nugget will also be offering a Thanksgiving menu selection in the Garden Café and Steak House. Whether you are looking for fine dining or a simple, casual Thanksgiving dinner, the Nugget has something for everyone. The following menus will be offered on Thursday November 25:

Carson Nugget Steakhouse – Thanksgiving dinner served from 4 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Enjoy a fine dining experience this Thanksgiving with the Steakhouse’s traditional dinner featuring Bourbon roasted turkey and gravy, apple stuffing, caramelized sweet potatoes and chipotle cranberry sauce. Enjoy this fine Thanksgiving feast for only $19.99 per person. Reservations recommended; 775 882-1626, ext. 247.

Garden Cafe – Thanksgiving dinner from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Looking for a more causal meal this Thanksgiving? Head to the Garden Café and enjoy a tasty meal of slow-roasted turkey, country mashed potatoes with apple/bourbon gravy, fresh cranberry sauce, green beans almondine for $9.99.
