The Legend of the Awful Awful

The famous Awful Awful Burger was created by Dick Graves at the Carson Nugget on March 1, 1954. It sold for just 55¢ and got its unforgettable name after a friend described it as “Awful big and awful good.”

More than 72 years later, the Awful Awful remains part of Carson Nugget’s famous history—debuting 13 years before McDonald’s introduced the Big Mac.

Built the way a legendary burger should be, the key to the Awful Awful are the double patties, four slices of American cheese, toasted onion bun, vegetables stacked above the meat, generous secret sauce and an almost outrageous quantity of seasoned French fries.

Today, the only place to get the original Awful Awful Burger is in the Capital City Grille at the Carson Nugget Casino.

Awful Big. Awful Good. Since 1954.
